If hearing Morse emerge from the fires
inside your boatanchors gives you pleasure, point your web browser at:

<http://www.globewireless.com/>

for freqs, times and lots of station information.

Morse is moving from a tired science to a fresh art, and that's as it should be. Like the ring of the smithy's anvil, better to live for love's sake then exist from bitter neccessity.
